What do the campers do at Camp Lakers?

Campers spend most of their time playing basketball. On Monday, campers are assigned to teams based on age and ability. Those teams compete throughout the week, with several games played each day. In addition, campers participate in a “skill of the day” and learn drills that incorporate that skill, i.e., defense, passing, ball handling and shooting. On Friday, teams compete for league championships.

How many campers attend the camp?

Each week there are roughly 175 campers. There is a 10:1 camper to coach ratio.

Who does the actual coaching?

Camp Lakers features instructors overseen by a member of the Lakers’ staff. Lakers Community Relations staff are always on-site, as well as training and medical staff. Parents are required to sign their camper out each day with their coach.

Can parents stay and watch Camp?

Parents may watch the first and last 30 minutes of each day at Camp

Monday – Thursday: 9AM – 9:30AM and 3:30PM – 4PM

Friday: 9AM – 9:30AM and 1:30PM – 2PM

Parents will be asked to leave the gym once the day begins. Parents are also required to sign campers out with their individual coach at the end of each day.
