Boys and girls between the ages of 8-17.

What do the campers do at Camp Lakers?

Campers spend most of their time playing basketball. On Monday, campers are assigned to teams based on age. Those teams compete throughout the week, with several games played each day. In addition, campers participate in a “skill of the day” and learn drills that incorporate that skill, i.e., defense, passing, ball handling and shooting. On Friday, teams compete for league championships.

How many campers attend the camp?

Each week there are roughly 160 campers. There is a 10:1 camper to coach ratio.

Who does the coaching and supervision?

Camp Lakers features coaches overseen by members of the Lakers' staff. Members of the Lakers Community Relations staff are always on-site, as well as training and medical staff. Our on-site staff are primarily English speakers. Parents/Legal guardians are required to sign their camper out with their coach each day of camp.

Can parents stay and watch Camp?

Parents may watch the first and last 30 minutes of each day at Camp.*

Monday – Thursday: 9AM – 9:30AM and 3:30PM – 4PM

Friday: 9AM – 9:30AM and 1:30PM – 3:00PM

* On Camp Lakers Championship Day (the last day of each camp session), parents/legal guardians will be allowed to watch the final 90 minutes of the camp day (1:30 – 3:00 pm).
