LON ROSEN

CHIEF BUSINESS OFFICER AND PRESIDENT, BUSINESS OPERATIONS

One of the foremost executives in the sports and entertainment industry, Lon Rosen serves as Chief Business Officer and President, Business Operations of the Los Angeles Lakers. Rosen transitioned from one iconic sports brand to another after serving as Executive Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer of the Los Angeles Dodgers, where he directed the organization's revenue-generating departments from 2012 to 2026.

Since assuming the role with the Lakers in February 2026, Rosen has led the organization's business operations with a focus on driving the commercial business, expanding the Lakers global reach, cultivating strategic partnerships and delivering an unparalleled experience for fans.

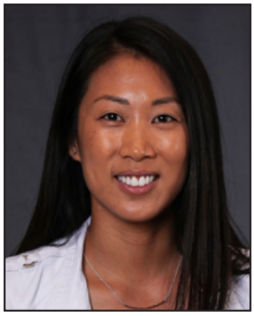

During his time with Dodgers, Rosen played a pivotal role in transforming the team's brand by driving record commercial growth through landmark partnerships, expanding the club's global fan base and spearheading an aggressive digital growth strategy. Those efforts contributed to Major League Baseball's highest attendance each season since 2013, increased television and digital audiences and fueled exponential growth across the team's digital platforms.

With more than 25 years of experience in the field, Rosen was instrumental in assisting Magic Johnson and the club's owners in their acquisition of the Dodgers. Rosen previously served in the same role for the Dodgers for two years starting in 2004 before rejoining Magic Johnson Enterprises. Rosen focused his efforts for Magic Johnson on business development, television productions, sports consulting and new media ventures, in addition to his representations of broadcasters, coaches, hosts and other entertainment personalities.

Upon graduating from college, Rosen launched his career at the Forum, where he began working with both the Lakers and the NHL's Los Angeles Kings. Starting as an intern, he rose through the organization to become Director of Promotions for the Lakers, Kings and the Forum's Special Events, a role he held from 1980 to 1987. He then founded First Team Marketing, a sports marketing agency that quickly established itself in the industry with Earvin "Magic" Johnson as its first client.

A graduate of the University of Southern California, Rosen resides in Los Angeles with his wife, Laurie. They have two sons and two grandchildren.

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

ELAINE SHEN

Elaine Shen enters her first season as Chief Financial Officer of the Los Angeles Lakers after most recently serving as the organization's Associate Chief Financial Officer. In her role, Shen oversees all financial aspects of the Lakers, helping shape strategic growth, drive profitability and create continued value for the franchise.

Shen joined the Lakers in 2016 and has held a variety of strategic roles across the organization in both business and basketball operations.

Prior to joining the Lakers, Shen worked at Aon and Wachovia Bank. Shen graduated from the University of Pennsylvania and earned her Master of Business Administration from the UCLA Anderson School of Management.

CHIEF LEGAL OFFICER & CHIEF INTEGRITY OFFICER

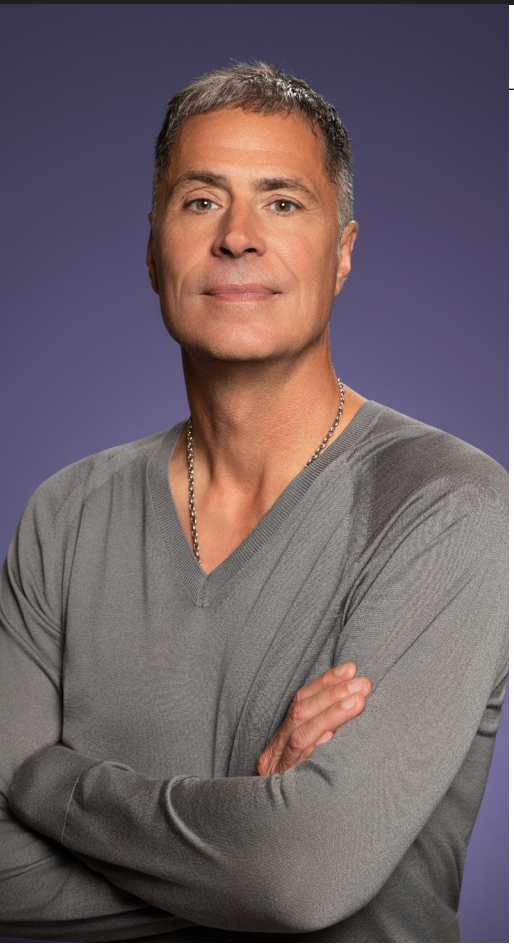

DAN GRIGSBY

Dan Grigsby is the Chief Legal Officer & Chief Integrity Officer of the Los Angeles Lakers and its subsidiaries and affiliates. Grigsby first began representing the Lakers, the Los Angeles Kings and other sports, entertainment and business properties owned by Dr. Jerry Buss as outside counsel in 1981 and moved in-house with the Lakers in April of 2014 after having practiced sports and entertainment law with several nationally and internationally recognized law firms for over 30 years. Prior to joining the Lakers in a full-time, in-house capacity, Dan served as the principal outside legal counsel for the Lakers since 1990 when his former partner, mentor and friend, Jim Perzik, became the first in-house General Counsel for the Lakers.

In his capacity as Chief Legal Officer & Chief Integrity Officer, Grigsby oversees and is responsible for all legal matters for the Lakers, the Coachella Valley Lakers (the Lakers' NBA G League team), the Los Angeles Lakers Youth Foundation and the other subsidiaries and affiliates of the Los Angeles Lakers. In addition, along with President of Basketball Operations and General Manager Rob Pelinka, Dan is one of two "designated negotiators" of NBA player contracts for the Lakers.

Grigsby is a sixth-generation Californian and grew up in Southern California. He received his undergraduate degree in Political Science from UCLA and his law degree from Whittier College School of Law. Dan lives in Pacific Palisades with his wife Karen, has three adult children and eight grandchildren who all live in the Palisades, and is a life-long Lakers fan.

ROB PELINKA

PRESIDENT, BASKETBALL OPERATIONS & GENERAL MANAGER

After nine full seasons with the Lakers, President of Basketball Operations & General Manager Rob Pelinka has orchestrated a series of blockbuster acquisitions, earning the franchise their 17th NBA title in 2020 and cementing the team's Championship DNA through the decade.

Pelinka helped make one of the most significant free agent signings in team history in 2018 when the Lakers added four-time NBA MVP LeBron James, following that up with a franchise-altering trade that brought eight-time NBA All-Star Anthony Davis to Los Angeles. With other key additions, L.A. went on to capture the team's first championship since 2010 by defeating Portland, Houston, Denver and Miami in the 2020 NBA Playoffs.

Prior to the 2024-25 season, Pelinka spearheaded a new era of Lakers basketball with the hiring of JJ Redick as the 29th head coach in Lakers history and the 25th of the Los Angeles era. As the trade deadline approached, Pelinka executed another franchise-altering move, acquiring five-time All-NBA guard and perennial MVP candidate Luka Dončić. Under the steady leadership of Pelinka and Redick, the Lakers posted an impressive 50-32 record, securing the third seed in the Western Conference and taking the Pacific Division crown for the first time since 2020.

In 2025-26, Pelinka and Redick guided the Lakers to a 53-29 record, marking consecutive 50-win seasons and earning the fourth seed in the Western Conference. The Lakers' 53 victories were their most since the 2010-11 season.

In the most recent offseason, Pelinka solidified the team's future by signing Austin Reaves to a contract extension and adding center Walker Kessler, veteran guard Quentin Grimes, forward Sandro Mamukelashvili and several other high-impact veteran players via free agency, as well as selecting Cameron Carr in the 2026 NBA Draft. The Lakers' reconstructed roster is flush with talent as the franchise looks to capture its 18th championship in team history.

Pelinka has also championed a renewed commitment to centering player development at the heart of the Lakers program. Across verticals, Pelinka has realigned the front office to maximize the player experience both on and off the court, from physical and mental performance and analytics to coaching and day-to-day operations. As the Lakers continue their pursuit towards banner 18, the impact of this initiative will be at the forefront.

Pelinka joined forces with the Lakers after spending the greater part of two decades representing many of the NBA's top players as an agent. Once named by Forbes as one the Top 10 Sports Agents in the World, Pelinka's experience gives him a unique, player-centric perspective of the NBA landscape that has helped shape the core service values for the franchise.

The Lake Forest, Ill., native earned his business degree from the University of Michigan's Ross School of Business with high honors in 1993, before receiving his law degree, cum laude, from the University of Michigan Law School in 1996. While on campus at Michigan, Pelinka was a member of the 1989 NCAA National Championship basketball team, taking part in three NCAA Final Fours (1989, 1992, 1993) for the Wolverines. In 1993, Pelinka was named the NCAA Walter Byers Male Student-Athlete of the Year. Upon graduation, Pelinka practiced corporate law in Chicago and then embarked on a successful career as a sports agent, representing some of the all-time greats and many future NBA Hall-of-Famers, including the Lakers own Kobe Bryant.

Pelinka, 56, makes his home in Newport Beach with his wife, Dr. Kristin Pelinka, his son, Durham (18), and his daughter, Emery (16). Pelinka's off court interests include trail running, mountain biking, reading great literature and spending as much time with his kids as his work schedule permits. Pelinka and his family take joy serving in leadership capacities at The Exceptional Families Ministry of Mariners Church in Irvine, Calif., and at The Painted Turtle Camp in Lake Hughes, Calif. Pelinka is also a proud member of the Mamba & Mambacita Sports Foundation Board of Directors.

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER, PLAYER PERSONNEL

ERIC AMSLER

Eric Amsler enters his first season with the Los Angeles Lakers as Assistant General Manager, Player Personnel, following 22 seasons in the Miami Heat front office. Amsler most recently served as Vice President, Player Personnel/General Manager, Sioux Falls Skyforce, where he oversaw the Heat's scouting department and the evaluation of draft, professional and G League prospects. He also assisted with personnel matters for the organization's NBA and G League rosters while scouting prospects domestically and internationally.

During seven seasons as general manager of the Skyforce, Amsler helped guide the team to one Western Conference Finals appearance and two trips to the Western Conference Semifinals. He was named the 2023-24 NBA G League Basketball Executive of the Year after Sioux Falls reached the conference semifinals for the second consecutive season. Under his leadership, the Skyforce produced 26 NBA call-ups.

Amsler joined the Heat as an intern for the 2004-05 season and went on to hold several positions within the organization's basketball operations department, including roles in scouting, player personnel and G League operations. He was named Director, Player Personnel/General Manager of the Skyforce in 2019 before later being elevated to his most recent position.

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BASKETBALL

KURT RAMBIS

Kurt Rambis is the Senior Vice President, Basketball for the Lakers after previously serving as the Lakers' Director of Basketball Affairs since 2020. Prior to that role, Rambis spent the previous two seasons as the organization's Senior Basketball Advisor. Rambis plays a key role in assembling each roster, including the NBA Championship-winning team in 2019-20. He previously spent 16 years in various coaching and front office roles within the organization.

Following a decorated playing career, during which he won four NBA Championships with the Lakers, Rambis initially entered the coaching ranks as an assistant on Del Harris' staff for four-plus seasons (1994-1999). Twelve games into the 1998-99 season, Rambis took over as the Lakers' interim head coach, compiling a 24-13 record and leading the team to the Western Conference Semifinals. He worked in the team's front office – first as an advisor and then as assistant general manager – in the 2000 and 2001 seasons, both of which culminated in NBA Championships for the Lakers. Rambis returned to the sidelines and joined head coach Phil Jackson's staff for seven seasons (2001-04, 2005-09) and for half of the 2004-05 season under interim head coach Frank Hamblen. Over that time, Rambis helped guide the Lakers to four more NBA Finals appearances (2002, 2004, 2008, 2009), with the team winning NBA Championships in 2002 and 2009.

Rambis served as head coach of the Minnesota Timberwolves from 2009-11 and from 2014-18 was associate head coach of the New York Knicks, including a stint as interim head coach in 2016.

A graduate of Santa Clara University with a B.S. in psychology, Rambis signed with the Lakers prior to the 1981-82 season and, as a player, helped the club to NBA titles in 1982, 1985, 1987, 1988. Rambis would later play for the Charlotte Hornets, Phoenix Suns and Sacramento Kings.

Rambis and his wife Linda reside in Manhattan Beach, Calif., and have three children: Jesse, Jordan and Ali as well as one grandchild: Penelope.

Bill Bertka returns for his 58th year of service in the NBA and his 52nd overall season with the Lakers. Bertka has been with the organization through 11 NBA Championships and 20 NBA Finals appearances. Most recently, Bertka was honored as the 2019 recipient of the Tex Winter Lifetime Achievement Award from the National Basketball Coaches Association, an honor recognizing extraordinary contributions to the sport throughout a career by building a body of work that has had a positive and powerful impact on the NBA coaching profession.

Serving as an assistant coach under nine Lakers head coaches dating back to 1981, Bertka brings a wealth of experience to the position, including coaching Laker big men Wilt Chamberlain, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Vlade Divac, Shaquille O'Neal and Andrew Bynum. His talent as a scout and experience in player personnel matters make him an excellent resource for the team's basketball operations staff.

Bertka became the first full-time scout in league history when the Lakers hired him in 1968. When Head Coach Bill Sharman took over the team in 1971-72, Bertka began working with players while also adding advance scouting duties. That team would later go on a 33-game winning streak – a still-standing professional sports record – en route to an NBA title, giving Bertka his first ring. In 1974, he left the Lakers to become the first general manager of the New Orleans Jazz and also had an initial ownership stake in the franchise through his company, Invest West Sports.

In 1981, Pat Riley became head coach of the Lakers and brought Bertka back as his first assistant. Together, the duo constructed what came to be known as the Lakers "Showtime" era, guiding the team to seven NBA Finals appearances in nine seasons and winning four NBA titles (1982, 1985, 1987, 1988). Bertka remained as an assistant coach with the Lakers for two decades, later winning back-to-back championships under Head Coach Phil Jackson (2000, 2001). Following his final season on the Lakers bench in 2001, Bertka transitioned to a primary role as a scout, a position in which he served through the 2011-12 season while winning three more NBA titles. He continues to advise the Lakers as a basketball consultant in the scouting department.

Bertka has twice served as interim coach of the Lakers, coaching two games during the 1993-94 season and one game while replacing Del Harris in 1998-99. He holds a 2-1 career record as an interim head coach, and his 1999 coaching appearance made him the oldest person to ever coach an NBA game at the age of 71.

The Santa Barbara native is also well known for founding Bertka Views, one of the most successful college scouting services in the country, which he and his wife, Solveig, operated from 1961-1995. Throughout that time period, many of the nation's premier college basketball programs utilized Bertka Views as their sole scouting service. Adding another feather to his cap during the summer of 1992, Bertka served as a scout for the United States' Olympic basketball team at the European Qualifying Tournament in Zaragoza, Spain. Additionally, Bertka hosted Sports With Bertka, his own radio show in Santa Barbara that won three Golden Mike Awards in the 1970's.

In 1989, Bertka enjoyed the dual distinction of being inducted into each of his hometowns' respective Hall of Fames; In May of that year he was inducted into the Santa Barbara Sports Hall of Fame and just five months later in October, he was inducted into the Summit County (Ohio) Sports Hall of Fame, where he grew up as a child. In January of 2004, Bertka was inducted into the Kent State University Sports Hall of Fame and most recently, was an inaugural inductee into the Santa Barbara Basketball Court of Champions in June 2014.

Bill and Solveig have two married daughters, Britt, who is married to veteran NBA assistant coach Jim Eyen, and Kris, married to Yankees scout Bill Pintard, and make their home on a 50-acre avocado ranch in Santa Barbara. They have four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

In 2025-26, Redick led the Lakers to a 53-29 overall record and the fourth seed in the Western Conference. He became the first Lakers coach since Phil Jackson in 2010-11 to record back-to-back 50-win seasons and just the 16th coach in NBA history to win 50-plus games in each of his first two campaigns. The team's 53 wins were its highest total since the 2010-11 season.

In Redick's first season at the helm, the Lakers finished with a 50-32 record, securing the third seed in the Western Conference and a berth in the 2025 NBA Playoffs. The campaign marked the franchise's first 50-win season since 2019-20. Redick became just the third head coach in team history to win 50 games in his first full season, joining Jackson (1999-00) and Pat Riley (1981-82).

Prior to his coaching career, Redick enjoyed a standout 15-year NBA playing career from 2006–21. Over his 15 seasons, he was part of 14 teams that advanced to the playoffs.

Shortly after his retirement on Sept. 21, 2021, Redick joined ESPN as a game analyst and was promoted to the network's lead broadcast team by the end of the 2023-24 season. In June of 2024, Redick called the NBA Finals alongside colleagues Mike Breen and Doris Burke.

Redick is a co-founder of ThreeFourTwo Productions where he co-hosted two popular podcasts: Mind the Game alongside Lakers star LeBron James and The Old Man and the Three. His success in broadcasting and media further showcased his basketball acumen, paving the way for his transition to coaching with the Lakers in 2024.

Selected 11th overall in the 2006 NBA Draft by the Orlando Magic, Redick starred at Duke University from 2002-06. A two-time consensus first-team All American, he was named the 2006 Naismith Men's College Player of the Year and remains the program's all-time leading scorer. Duke retired his No. 4 jersey on Feb. 4, 2007, and he was inducted into the Duke Athletics Hall of Fame in 2024. NBA CARES & THE ADVANCEMENT OF SOCIAL ISSUES

NBA CARES

NBA Cares is the league's global social responsibility program that builds on the NBA's mission of addressing important social issues. Through NBA Cares, the NBA's social responsibility commitments drive change on issues facing fans and communities by advancing needed resources. NBA Cares focuses on health and wellness, social justice, civic engagement and sustainability, and works with players and teams to highlight important issues. NBA Cares works with internationally recognized youth-serving programs that support education, youth and family development, and health-related causes, including Thurgood Marshall College Fund, Special Olympics, YMCA of the USA, Boys & Girls Clubs of America, UNICEF, the Make-A-Wish Foundation, Share Our Strength and GLSEN.

For more information about the NBA's latest community outreach efforts, please visit www.cares.nba.com.

THE ADVANCEMENT OF SOCIAL ISSUES

Through a combination of civic engagement, voter education, digital inclusion initiatives and internal programs, the Lakers are committed to fostering a workplace and community where employees feel valued, supported and empowered. Our approach includes advancing diversity in the workplace, enriching employee experience, building community equity and driving progress through data.

The Lakers offer three employee resource groups, including the Black Action Network, Women's Impact Network and Multicultural Leadership Network. The Black Action Network works to build inclusiveness and provide cultural opportunities for staff. For the last several summers, the Lakers have hosted interns from Historically Black Colleges and Universities through the NBA's HBCU Fellowship program. These programs, among many others, are part of the Lakers' dedication to making profound anti-racist changes in the Los Angeles community.

The Lakers Women's Impact Network is designed to cultivate an inclusive environment that inspires and empowers the women of the Los Angeles Lakers through peer support, leadership guidance and community outreach. The Lakers Multicultural Leadership Network leads our commitment to diversity and inclusion by promoting a culture of mutual respect and understanding through educating our team about the rich variety of cultural experiences, advocating for inclusive practices and celebrating diversity.

In the community, the Lakers host Building Bridges with Basketball, a program that serves as an opportunity for members of the Los Angeles Police Department and at-risk youth from local community organizations to engage in conversations around dynamic topics. Using the sport as a bridge for these discussions, the ultimate intention is to break down barriers and build positive, lasting connections that last beyond each session and permeate the community.

CONNECTING THROUGH BASKETBALL

The Lakers believe in the power of basketball to unite and connect communities around the world. The Lakers are dedicated to expanding access to basketball and giving kids access to quality programming and safe places to learn and play.

The Lakers regularly offer local organizations the opportunity to host a free basketball clinic and fitness clinics for children in their neighborhood. The clinics are designed to promote youth basketball, be interactive, make physical fitness fun, and teach kids how to stay active and healthy.

The Lakers regularly provide basketball court refurbishments in the Los Angeles community. The new courts, which are modeled after the Lakers practice court, include state-of-the-art upgrades to the baskets, court and overall appearance to provide a safe place for youth to pursue healthy exercise and sports.

Junior Lakers is the Lakers' year-round youth basketball program focused on developing fundamental skills, teamwork, sportsmanship and positive community involvement for Los Angeles youth. Powered by UCLA Health, the Junior Lakers program has an impact to reach over 130,000 L.A. kids basketball players.

Camp Lakers, presented by UCLA Health, is committed to providing young players with the ultimate Lakers experience. Camp Lakers features advanced and experienced basketball instructors, who provide kids a combination of drill stations, league play and awarded skill contests for a week of fun for campers.

The Junior Lakers Dancers program brings together over 2,500 young people across all Southern California Boys & Girls Clubs. The Laker Girls visit each club and teach kids how to dance the Laker Girls way. Following the clinics, dancers have the opportunity to perform the dance alongside the Laker Girls at halftime of a Lakers game.

In collaboration with wish-granting organizations, the Los Angeles Lakers regularly provide game tickets and arrange player meetings for children and adults facing life-threatening medical conditions. Over the past 20 years, the Lakers have granted over 400 special wishes for children and adults from all over the United States, Canada and around the world.

SERVING LOS ANGELES COMMUNITIES

Los Angeles is a place where everyone belongs and the Lakers are committed to supporting the communities where we live, work and play. We believe in celebrating and honoring Angelenos throughout the city and creating spaces where differences are celebrated.

The Lakers believe in bringing joy to the Los Angeles community through their annual "Season of Giving." Each holiday season, the Lakers host several events centered around the holidays intended to bring joy and cheer to local underserved communities.

The Lakers recognize the heroic actions of active military members and honor those who serve and sacrifice for our country. Since 2015, the Lakers and Pechanga Resort Casino have hosted Hoops for Troops basketball clinics for U.S. Armed Forces service members to enjoy friendly competition alongside Lakers legends. After the clinic, participants and their families stay and enjoy the Lakers game.

INVESTING IN THE NEXT GENERATION

The Lakers believe in driving meaningful change and creating a positive impact for kids in the community through access to sport and eduction.

The Lakers invest in a number of community partners through quarterly grants to support those that are driving meaningful change across education, health and wellenss.

The Lakers Literacy League, supported by Libby, is a free program for teachers intended to foster the joy of literacy in kids grades K-5 through engaging Lakers-themed challenges and creative projects. Teachers register their classrooms to receive a monthly newsletter with access to three main activities per month. Eligible members of the League then have the opportunity to win prizes for their entire class.

Over the years, the Lakers and NBA Cares have also worked together to renovate learning spaces and STEM labs throughout Los Angeles in an effort to provide safe, stimulating, and comfortable environments for young people to learn, study, and build meaningful relationships.

In 2026, the Lakers announced a historic relocation of their G League affiliate to the Greater Palm Springs region and a rename to the Coachella Valley Lakers. Beginning with the 2026-27 NBA G League season, the Coachella Valley Lakers will enter their 18th campaign in the NBA G League and look to remain one of the most successful franchies in league history.

Throughout the franchise's history, the Coachella Valley Lakers have been at the forefront of the NBA's minor league movement. The team has established itself as a top producer of NBA-ready talent, totaling 60 NBA Call-Ups and developing 32 Lakers assignment players since the team's inaugural season in 2006-07.

Alex Cerda enters his first season as the head coach of the Coachella Valley Lakers after serving as an assistant coach from 2023-26. Cerda served as an assistant coach and offensive coordinator for the Texas Legends from 2021-23 following two seasons in the Los Angeles Clippers video department. The Texas native began his professional coaching career with the Fort Wayne Mad Ants in 2016 as head video coordinator and player development coach. Cerda also operated a player development training program in Dallas, working with athletes at multiple levels. He graduated from the University of Texas at Austin in 2016.

The 2025-26 season was highlighted by two NBA Call-Ups: Kobe Bufkin (Los Angeles Lakers, Memphis Grizzlies) and Drew Timme (Los Angeles Lakers). The Lakers finished the season with a 26-10 record (.722), marking the second-highest winning percentage in franchise history. Coachella Valley also reached the conference finals for the fourth time in franchise history.

Los Angeles Lakers guard Bronny James appeared in 20 Tip-Off Tournament and regular season games for Coachella Valley, averaging 13.8 points, 3.4 rebounds, 3.9 assists and 1.2 steals in 29.5 minutes. Los Angeles Lakers guard Adou Thiero appeared in 10 Tip-Off Tournament and regular season games for Coachella Valley, averaging 15.3 points, 4.7 rebounds, 2.1 assists, 1.3 steals and 1.0 blocks in 22.5 minutes. Two-way players for the 2025-26 season included Drew Timme, Chris Mañon and Nick Smith Jr.

Coachella Valley will look to build upon last season with Head Coach Alex Cerda accompanied by returning coach Liam Flynn and incoming coaches Johnny Taylor, Jerome Tillman, Jordan McGuire and Tevin Falzon. Brandon Pentheny enters his second season as Sports Science Lead / Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach after serving in the same role for the Delaware Blue Coats. Returning two-way forward Arthur Kaluma and guard Chris Mañon will continue to implement the principles of Lakers basketball into the team culture. New two-way forward AK Okereke will look to make his mark. Coachella Valley's season tips off Nov. 6 with a home opener at Acrisure Arena versus the Salt Lake City Stars in Thousand Palms, Calif.

As the first NBA team to ever dance on the hardwood, the Laker Girls are back for their 48th season.

Inspired by the collegiate look and vibrant spirit that existed at USC and UCLA in the late 1970s, Dr. Jerry Buss knew the court had the power to be transformed into a stage. He brought this vision to life by uniting former song leaders from both universities to form the first-ever Laker Girls squad in 1979, and the rest was history.

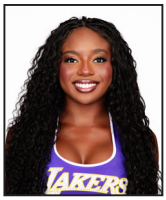

The most glamorous dance group in the NBA quickly became a cultural phenomenon across the country and then around the world. Their style, charisma and signature moves inspired trends in the music industry as well as the rest of the NBA to follow their lead, forming dance teams of their own.

The Laker Girls have evolved into a team comprised of equal parts glamour and fierceness. Every year, each member of the team arrives with determination and unfaltering dedication to transform the floor into a stage and reinforce what it means to be a part of the Lakers. As iconic as they will always be, each year is original, bigger, bolder and better than ever on the brightest stage.

Beyond the hardwood, the Laker Girls have become ambassadors for the organization and NBA worldwide. While active in the local community with appearances throughout the season at non-profit and charitable functions, the Laker Girls have also been chosen to represent the NBA on a global stage. With the position considered a part-time job, each member of the Laker Girls is also involved in academic pursuits, dance endeavors or professional careers in a variety of fields.

Dr. Jerry Buss brought 10 rings and the Laker Girls to Los Angeles. It's been over four decades, and both teams are still integral parts of the city's culture to this day.

Brimming with Innovation

Crypto.com Arena has invested hundreds of millions of dollars to ensure that the venue remains state-of-the-art. In 2025, the arena completed its nine-figure multi-million-dollar renovation project with new amenities and offerings for every guest from premium offerings including redesigned San Manuel and Legacy Clubs and L.A.'s first Tunnel Suites to the all-new City View Terrace located on the upper concourse, which boasts stunning views of L.A. LIVE and the Downtown Los Angeles skyline, as well as serves as the home of celebrity chef David Chang's new fuku spicy chicken concept.

Guests who attend events are treated to the finest entertainment experiences imaginable. The arena has free public Wi-Fi, over 840 Toshiba flat panel televisions and (as part of a specially designed $1.5 million facility-wide sound system) 675 separate speakers outside of the seating area, so fans never miss any of the sights or sounds of a Crypto.com Arena event. Also featured is a $2 million specialty lighting package and other state-of-the-art amenities.

Perhaps the greatest emphasis throughout Crypto.com Arena's development has been the recruitment and training of its guest services and security staff. The Crypto.com Arena experience is second-to-none from the entertainment environment to the staff's commitment to making every guest's visit a memorable one. Never has an arena had the amenities, features and commitment to quality service that Crypto.com Arena offers to guests each time the doors open for an event. Crypto.com Arena continues to set new standards for the arena industry.

The mission of the Foundation is to support children and families in need through grantmaking in the areas of K-12 education, the arts and health and wellness. We at AEG believe that corporate philanthropy and community engagement play a critical role in helping communities thrive.

Crypto.com Arena and L.A. LIVE serve as the hub for community engagement and support employee volunteerism activities such as a company-wide Day of Service when, through a partnership with City Year, employees volunteer to refurbish local public schools by providing supplies, painting, cleaning and gardening services.
